

The following charter requirements are in accordance with PRSA bylaws and PRSSA National bylaws. If you have questions about these requirements, contact PRSSA Headquarters at (212) 460-1474.

School Requirements

A PRSSA Chapter may be established and maintained only at a college or university that:

- Offers baccalaureate degrees.
- Is accredited by a nationally or regionally recognized accrediting association or board.
- Offers a sequence of at least five courses in public relations.
- Is supplemented by additional courses allied to this field of study.

Required Courses

While PRSA does not try to characterize the specific nature of the required public relations courses, we do require proof of courses addressing the following subject areas:

- Introduction to Public Relations
- Public Relations Writing and Production
- Public Relations Research
- Public Relations Strategy and Implementation (e.g. Case Problems, Campaigns Course)
- Supervised Public Relations Experience (Internship)

Endorsement

Each PRSSA charter application must be endorsed by the president and four additional members of a PRSA sponsor Chapter. You can find the contact information for PRSA Chapters on the PRSA website.

Students

At least ten students who will join the Chapter are required. Eight must be at or below the junior level.

Faculty Adviser

A Chapter must have a Faculty Adviser who teaches at least one of the public relations courses required for the charter and who is a PRSA member or Associate Member.

Professional Adviser

A Chapter must have one or two Professional Advisers who are PRSA members with at least five years of public relations experience or Accreditation. Associate Members do not qualify for this position.

Application

To apply, schools must submit the following:

- A non-refundable application fee of $100, payable to PRSSA. You may send this via check or call 212-460-1474 to pay over the phone by credit card.
- One copy of the completed application and proposed bylaws.
- One copy of each syllabus for the required public relations courses.
- One copy of the teacher biographies.

Please email the application as a PDF attachment to Jeneen.Garcia@prsa.org

If paying by check, please send the check to:
